

IBM ODM Migration

Is it time for your company to consider migrating away from your IBM ODM application?

- Decisions has the ODM project experience companies are looking for when it comes time to walking away from ODM. In our ODM Project experience we approach these projects with dedication and design that creates a path to help our clients migrate quickly away from ODM to Decisions.
- Decisions Licensing gives our clients the performance needed to Move At The Speed Of Business.

In our experience we have witnessed our clients losing sleep over the size and complexity of their truth tables.

- Decisions has the capabilities and compacity to handle your largest truth table conversions quickly & accurately.
- Decisions can automate the conversion of your truth tables and eliminate the painful manual steps and processes of truth table conversions.

Ever had to write pseudo code to get something done in ODM?

- Decisions offers a Converter Flow which can be used to clean up data so it can be handled more elegantly within a process, or displayed as desired.
